

DOOM HAVEN ICEBERG 7.0

Disclaimer:

The following entries to this iceberg contain discussions of NFSW and graphic content. Reader's discretion is advised. Seriously, we're not kidding here. This iceberg gets darker and darker as you venture down. Take note of the entries that are marked as NSFW (Not Safe For Work) and NSFL (Not Safe For Life). They're optional for you to read for your sanity's sake. Also, the entries that are coloured in dark orange are the new entries in this Iceberg, along with the existing articles that are revised just recently. The ones that are coloured green are the entries featured in the photo.

TIER 1: The Blue Skies of Heaven

- Smash or Pass?

Smash or pass is a recurring meme on DH where the admins post random photos and ask the members whether they'd "smash" (to have a sexy time with them) or "pass" (to reject). Simple af.

- Oy Kurwa!

"Oy Kurwa" is Alice's catchphrase as a reaction to anything really, from a reaction of genuine surprise to an expression of disappointment. Think of it as someone saying the word "oh my god" or "bruh". The phrase is Polish for "oh fuck".

- Postman Pat

Postman Pat is a British stop motion animated series that follows the adventures of Pat Clifton as he delivers mail throughout a fictional town called Greendale. Just like Brum, the series became memorable to some users that some of them began discussing about them due to their simple childhood without caring too much about the world. ~~And no, we do not talk about the movie... that one's mid.~~

- Xbox

Pretty sure everyone knows what an Xbox is, right? If not, this link will do. Anyhoo, most admins in DH play on Xbox as well, and you guys are welcome to join as long as you don't go out of your way and try to ruin their gameplay lol

- Fishkissing

Fish kissing is a meme about two fish “kissing” (when in reality, they’re actually fighting). That’s it. Besides, who doesn’t wanna kiss a fish?

- Crudux Cruo!

Crudux Cruo is a well-known sound effect featured in 1997 FPS game Blood. It is uttered by the Cultists, the recurring enemies in the game. It means “fresh blood” in Cultist Language. This phrase was so beloved that it became a well-known meme in DH.

- Brum

Brum is a British kid’s show about a small old car named Brum (duh!) venturing out into the “Big Town” while his owner is unknown of his self-awareness. Due to its nostalgia factor, Brum becomes a recurring topic in Doom Haven, especially amongst 90s kids. Watching Brum would remind them of this nostalgia where life was simple without worrying about an impending pandemic or even a global conflict.

- Omori

Omori is a psychological horror RPG developed by OMOCAT and co-published by PLAYISM which was a hit game back in 2020. Omori is Alice’s favourite game and her online name is a reference of an Omori character of the same name. And yes, you’ll see a lot of Omori memes on this server as well, so better get used to it.

- Mid

Mid is a slang which means something of a mediocre quality. Started by Codename_Delta, this word has become a meme on Doom Haven to jokingly make fun of someone’s “mediocre” quality. However, this word has annoyed many members... but we regret nothing.

- Who’s That Pokémon?

“Who’s That Pokémon” was a trend on Doom Haven that was started by Astral/Rotom/Darkmatter where they would ask who the Pokémon is under the silhouette. Patterned after the well-known segment of the same name from the Pokémon anime.

- Mr. Toilet Man

Mr. Toilet Man is taken from an infamous scene in the 1990 film Look Who's Talking Too, where it features a nightmare scene of a kid where the toilet bowl starts being scary af. Another well-known meme in Doom Haven.

- Cheeky Wank (pictured)

Cheeky Wank is an extremely well-known meme in DH where it features Batman making a... “pleasured wank” face. That’s it lol.

- Vaporeon

Vaporeon is a well-known water-type Pokemon where its infamy grew thanks to Vaporeon copyypasta. It is portrayed as an aquatic dog/cat/~~fox~~/rodent/quadruped that can blend well with the water. But seriously, who would say no to that adorable and steaming-hot Pokemon?

- Fell Off

Fell Off is another top-notch quality meme from DH coined by Codename_Delta. Something that “fell off” means it has declined in quality or relevance. Just like “mid”, I’m pretty sure a lot of members are getting pissy about this too, but still we regret nothing.

- Curry Song

A meme song in Doom Haven that was frequently played in music VC. That’s it.

- CTTO

CTTO (short for “credits to the owner”) is a phrase used in Filipino social media posts as a half-assed way of giving someone credits to a repost. This in-joke is being used on Doom Haven to make fun of modders not crediting if other addons or assets were used on their mods.

Also, I’m surprised that you guys don’t use CTTO outside the Philippines. I thought this acronym is a thing in other countries too. -Space

- HIPPOB - Mock 2 OST

Another meme song in Doom Haven that was frequently played in music VC... what else can I say? Oh yes, still better than Skibidi Toilet. Hell, even Curry Song is better than Skibidi Toilet smfh

- Bunnyposting

Bunnyposting is a series of posting any rabbit-related media that was started by DH's Giga Chad SpaceHunyango. Probably one of the most wholesome parts of DH Lore. Too bad you guys are taking this out of context, fuck you.

- Stone Pusher

Stone Pusher was a well-known meme referencing the legend of Sisyphus who was a former king that was punished by the gods by forcing him to roll a boulder up a hill only to watch it roll down, hence repeating his punishment forever.

- Time To Drink Water!

"Time to drink water" is a catchphrase uttered by DH's resident crazyposter MaybeHawk (see TIER 2 - Hawk's Crazyposting) reminding users to hydrate themselves. Remember kids, dehydration sucks, so you better drink water as much as possible to remain healthy. Stay hydrated!

- Alice/Basil

Formerly known as Deathclaw886, Alice is Doom Haven's owner who mods Doom and oftentimes composes music. She also plays on Xbox and is a huge Omori fan as well. Also, she's a cutie with her cute pigtailed 🐷

Basil, named after Alice's favourite character from OMORI, is her old alt account that she used on Doom Haven.

- Eggposting

Eggposting is a recurring gag in Doom Haven where members are posting eggs for fun. Oh, and it's also a more family-friendly version of the "Eggs Incident" (refer to TIER 6 - "Eggs Incident").

- Crazy Paving

Crazy Paving is basically a type of a floor that you'd outside where its patterns are in irregular shapes. Apparently, some people here love Crazy Paving 'coz it's trippy I guess... And yes, it's also a well-known yet wholesome meme in DH.

- Fisherman's Friend

Fisherman's Friend is a brand of lozenges made by Lofthouse Company in Great Britain. In this context, it's also used to refer to a well-known GIF of Forrest waving while on a boat.

- Paige/Saraya

Paige (real name Saraya Bevis) is a British professional wrestler that gained a "waifu material" status in DH due to her goth girl appearance and sexy physique 🤔

- Lola Bunny

Lola Bunny is a Loony Tunes character that first appeared in the 1996 film Space Jam. She gained a following due to her portrayal as a soft-spoken bunny tomboy. She is also a well-known "waifu material" in Doom Haven due to this certain someone simping for her unironically (name withheld to protect their identity).

- Goth Girls

Goth girls are basically hot girls sporting in a goth attire and makeup. And a lot of folks in DH are going gaga over their mysterious yet captivating physique, including yours truly. Notable resident goth girl in Doom Haven is Alice 🤔🤔🤔

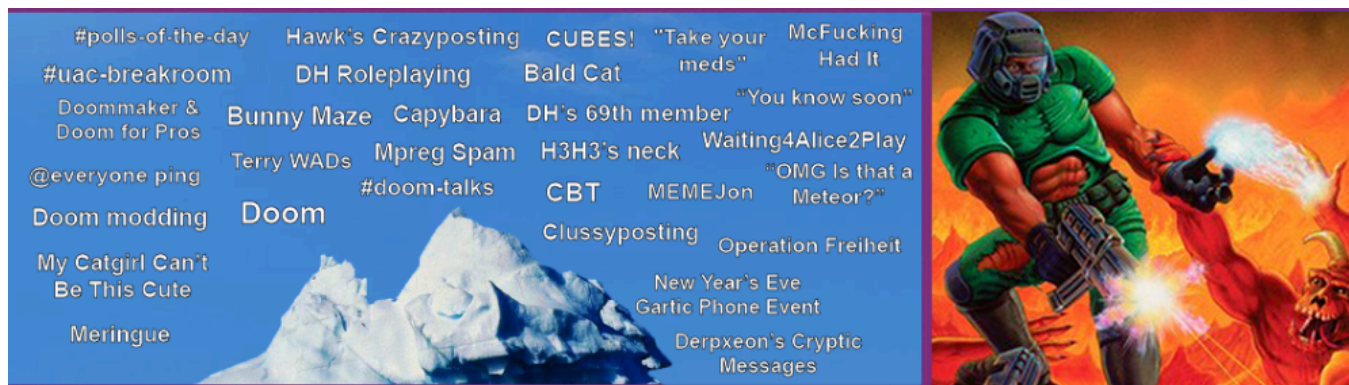

- QOTD Bot

QOTD Bot (QOTD = "Question/s of the Day") was a bot on Doom Haven that was active in giving Doom-related questions and trivia. The purpose of the bot is to encourage interactions and engagements in the server. It was "decommissioned" in May 2024 to make way for the Polls of the Day (refer to TIER 2 - #polls-of-the-day).

- Cyberdemon and Mastermind

Doom Haven Cyberdemon and Mastermind are the co-owners of Doom Haven. In other words, they are Alice's second-in-command in maintaining Doom Haven. Named after the two major enemy bosses of Doom.

TIER 2: The Tip of the Doom Haven Iceberg

- #polls-of-the-day

Polls of the Day is a section in DH where members would vote their preferred picks in a list of choices (polls). Probably the most democratic moment in DH history.

- Hawk's Crazyposting

Just like Derpxeon, MaybeHawk (Hawk for short) is also infamous for his so-called "crazyposting" series where he'd either shitpost random messages or even role play as Walter White. But unlike Derp, he's more tamed. Just don't bother him while he's programming or something or else he'll leak your "homework folder" online.

- CUBES!

CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!
CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!

CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!
CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!CUBES!

- "Take your meds"

"Take your meds" is a statement used to remind some members who are shitposting in #uac-breakroom to take their meds to prevent them from turning into Derp.

- McFucking Had It

McFucking Had It is a meme about Ronald McDonald losing it. It was used on DH every time someone loses their cool or is about to snap.

- “You Know Soon”

“You know soon” is part of “Derp’s Cryptic Messages” that was used by others to make fun of the infamous Derp. Because we’re talking about Derp, his real intent behind that statement is unknown. You can ask him though, but you’ll have a hard time understanding his 1000 IQ cunning speech.

- Waiting4Alice2Play

Waiting4Alice2Play is Alice’s personal voice channel on Doom Haven named after a song from Doom II. This is where you can meet and greet the owner of Doom Haven herself.

- H3H3’s Neck

H3H3’s neck is an in-joke started by Space and Alice after finding out that H3H3 is part of Payday 2’s DLC. Yup, you heard it right. I don’t even know why he’s there in the first place.

- CBT (NSFW)

Ask Alice about this. I have no clue why this one’s included in this iceberg apart from the fact that she couldn’t stop playing that soundboard over and over again.

- MEMEJon

MEMEJon is an emoji used for new members joining, only to leave 10 seconds later.

- “OMG Is that a meteor?”

This quote comes from an ASMR video of some guy getting hit by a meteor, which later on gets added as a soundboard by Alice. Better get used to this, folks.

- Operation Freiheit

Operation Freiheit \(“Operation Freedom”\) is an upcoming music project of Alice where she would showcase her gritty techno-inspired tracks called “Alicecore”. Go subscribe to her channel and give her some love, yes?

- Bald Cat

Obviously, the bald cat is a Sphynx Cat. The so-called “Bald Cat Defence Force” is just another way of referring to a gang of Sphynx Cats. Started by SpaceHunyango, this newly-made in-joke is created as a loving tribute to these hairless cats because they deserve love too despite their physical flaws. Now they deserve body positivity too.

- Doom Haven's 69th Member (NICE)

This historical moment is just a former admin congratulating the 69th member of Doom Haven. Nice.

- #uac-breakroom

UAC Breakroom (formerly #the-asylum-chat) is the general chat of DH. That chat is where all the crazy shit happened. About 98% of this iceberg took place in this chat. So, always remember, if you step into UAC Breakroom, there's a high chance that a new DH lore will spring out in that place.

- DH Roleplaying

Self-explanatory. Some members love to roleplay in Doom Haven. But please, if you're going to roleplay, don't do it with your toaster. You're just making a dumbass out of yourself smfh

- MPreg Spam (NSFW)

Apparently, someone in Doom Haven kept on posting an emoji featuring a man being pregnant. Their real intent as to why they did what they did remains a mystery. Some say they're actually pregnant, while other sources suggest that they're schizoposting. No one knows.

- Clussyposting (NSFW)

So, there's a guy who once flooded Doom Haven with pictures of clussy (including Pomni). As a result, a lot of his clussyposts would get purged by the admins.

- Doommaker and Doom for Pros

Doommaker is an infamous Doom modder known for his shitposting habits and his persistent tagging and messaging poor innocent members to test out his mod. His mod is of low quality and this mutant-lover had the audacity to steal assets without credit. Fortunately, he was called out and has since then included credits on his mods... However, Doom for Pros is still of poor quality and I'm pretty sure only a few Doom players would enjoy his mod.

- Capybara

Capybara is a unique animal that exists in South America and is known for their nickname “coconut doggy”. So basically, this animal became a meme because of an audio edit in TikTok where they do capybara stuff with the song After Party by Don Toliver playing in the background.

- Bunny Maze

Bunny Maze is a wholesome FPS maze game developed by Spaceverse Studios and published by Smiling Face Media. This game is basically a super easy maze puzzle where you have to find a switch to exit the maze. As of now, a last update (version 3.0) has been released where it improves its overall gameplay and level design. This game has 8 endings. Can you find all of them?

Also, download the game on Itch or ModDB now and support SpaceHunyango wink wink.

PS: I wouldn't cheat if I were you lcy, or else the Bunnies will know!

- #doom-talks

Doom Talks was once a chat in Doom Haven where the members can talk about anything Doom-related. However, it was purged in order to integrate any Doom-related discussions in UAC Breakroom.

- @Everyone Ping

This pinging system from Discord is designed to tag everyone over a message. This ping is infamous in DH due to whiny brainlets failing to realise that they can disable the ping and instead throw a child fit or leave DH. Guys, if you don't like being pinged, right-click (or “hold” on mobile) the DH server icon, click “notifications settings”, and check “suppress @everyone and @here”. Easy as pie. Now get your whinyasses back to Doom Haven!

- Terry WADs

Terry WADs is an umbrella term for Doom WADs that are of low-quality and utilise a jumpscare known as “Terry Traps”. While the reception within the Doom community is mixed, Terry WADs leave a lasting impact within the fanbase and modding scene. Terry WADs used to be a thing on Doom Haven, to the point where Alice managed to make a Terry WAD of her own.

- Doom modding

One of the selling points of Doom Haven is to serve as a hub for Doom modders showcasing their works. Most of the members of DH are composed of sprite artists, composers, graphic designers, and playtesters who contribute to the Doom community one way or another.

- Doom (pictured)

DOOM is a well-known 1993 FPS game developed and published by id Software. It's about an unnamed space marine named Doomguy battling hordes of hellish demons in order to survive the corrupted labs of Union Aerospace Corporation \(UAC\). This is also the namesake of this server because of the owner's love for DOOM. And yes, almost ALL of the members in DH play Doom-related games. 'Nuff said.

- My Catgirl Can't Be This Cute

My Catgirl Can't Be This Cute (or Chibi series for short) is a webcomic series written and produced by a sexy spaceman which tells the story of a catgirl named Chibi living with her human roommate named Elliott. This series is well-known to Doom Haven due to a former DH admin taking part in voice acting and because of DH members simping for Chibi 🦊🐱.

- Meringue

Meringue is a dessert from France that is known as "Beza" or "Merengue" in other countries. It is pronounced as "meh-rang". That's about it.

- New Year's Eve Gartic Phone Event

This wholesome moment occurred on the New Year's Eve of 2024 where members and admins of DH participated in a VC while playing Gartic Phone while celebrating another year gone by. It's so adorable because they have no clue what's in store for them in the same year (refer to TIER 3 - Timmy Incident of 2024).

- Derpxeon's Cryptic Messages

Derpxeon is an infamous village idiot of Doom Haven due to his random shitposting messages, ranging from accusing a member of stealing his mods to him saying mumbo-jumbo in the chat. However, he was banned as of now due to his homophobia. Oof. At least we have Hawk.

TIER 3: Iceberg Limbo

- Telesnow's Chibi Incident

Another historical moment in Doom Haven where an unsung hero named Telesnow tried to convince the masses about how “pornographic” My Catgirl Can't Be This Cute series is by convincing the people that a scene where Chibi sitting on a couch is akin to “nudity” (bullshit), and the fact that the creator is “stooping that low” by showing the episode to kids (it's not made for kids).

However, this lobotomite's plan failed miserably and has become a laughing stock in Doom Haven due to their whiny behaviour... oh and also they called everyone a homophobe for not agreeing with their opinion lol

- “Fishy Fanny” (NSFW)

Fishy Fanny is just a phrase which means... a woman's stinky you-know-what. That's all you need to know.

- The Collective

The Collective was an “alliance” of Discord servers belonging to the members of Doom Haven. Its primary goal is to diffuse any cross-server drama in a more unified and civil manner. As of now, The Collective is kinda dormant.

- Clippit and SFC

A certain user, who shares the name with a well-known Microsoft freak, was recently booted out of DH due to his belligerent behaviour towards the members. This individual, who owns a server, would go on there and conduct snoozefest talks about how he loves Southern fried chicken like it's God's gift to the world, while shunning other members for having a convo that is out of this moron's preference. As a result, SFC (Southern fried chicken) is a fresh meme to make fun of this paper clip wanna-be and his piss-poor attitude towards others.

- Alice's mic

In the voice channels, Alice would VC with other members on Doom Haven. However, some of them would make unnecessary comments about her mic quality. This actually pisses Alice off because she couldn't afford to buy a high-quality microphone. Plus, she's using her Xbox headset as a means to communicate with other members.

So next time, please be considerate when making those comments about her mic.

- Sarven the "Toaster" (NSFW)

Sarven is an original character (OC) created by a former DH admin named Roozy which is portrayed as a seven-foot-tall (around 2.13 m) demoness that lactates strawberry milkshake (I'm not making this up btw). Oh, and to spice things up, you can copulate with her without protection because her female organs are designed to exterminate any sperm cells that enter her womb (and no, I'm not making this one up as well). In order to "cope with his loneliness", Roozy made an alt account of himself posing as Sarven and would start roleplaying with himself. Yes, this person exists in real life. Fucking hell.

- "Go To Sleep Norb" (NSFW)

"Go To Sleep Norb" was a series of posting hot booba videos to Norb in order to get rid of her insomnia. Some members also jokingly told Norb to sleep using their status. As it turns out, this initiative works and legends say that Norb has since then dreamt of boobas... and Anna lol

- Co-owners of DH

Co-owners of Doom Haven have been different since its inception on Discord. Originally, Kinotsu Kochirumi was the first co-owner of Doom Haven but was replaced by Norb later on. However, due to numerous drama surrounding DH at that time, she vacated her position and was replaced by Nightmare. As of 04 November 2024, the new co-owner of Doom Haven is now Spacehunyango, with Norb returning as well.

- Feud with Doomworld

Doom Haven started out as a discontentment from Doomworld's draconian way of running the forums, especially shunning users if they express any form of criticism on someone's work. A lot of prominent DH members were also banned from the site, such as Alice. As a result, DH was established as an alternative community for the Doom fanbase. However, you can still join DH despite being a Doomworld member as long as you don't rat us out to Doomworld like this snitch did (see TIER 5 - A Member Snitched Out To Doomworld).

- New guy's meltdown of 2024

So, there was a guy who just joined Doom Haven but was disillusioned with the rules and the new verification system (which was made to deter scammers and trolls). So he "calmly" states his dissatisfaction with the server and leaves like his father did to him.

- Akita's Infamous Tirades

DH had a resident anime magical girl named Akita known for starting beefing with other members. This interesting individual used to have fights with Roozy and Plats, arguing mostly about her transgender identity. And yes, this fight includes a lot of "end yourself" comments and the usage of speech balloon memes. This fight was so unbearable that a lot of admins had no clue on how to stop their endless bickering, including Alice herself.

- #the-chasm

The Chasm (formerly Isolation Chamber) is the de facto gulag of Doom Haven for misbehaving Timmies like you. If you don't want to spend your days in the gulag, behave yourselves and read the rules when in doubt. It is named after an infamous level from Doom 2.

- "Chat is Dead" Incident

Infamous incident is about DH members getting timed out by a bot for 1 hour for saying "dead chat" on the server. The perpetrator of this incident, as well as the motive, remains a mystery. However, it is presumed that it was done as a prank for DH members.

- Timmy Incident of 2024 (pictured)

This historical moment is about four young and immature members (hence the term “Timmy” was born) of Doom Haven instigating a month-long drama which further divided the entire populace of the server, which led to a lot of members calling out the admins for their “incompetence”, which in turn led to several admins boycotting Doom Haven until this was resolved. However, these “Timmies” were spreading chaos by vilifying the admins as the bad guys for laying down the law on them, when in reality, they only wanted to be coddled without learning this thing called “accountability”.

After weeks of divide, the “Timmies” were zapped into the void where they will no longer spread mental stupidity to Doom Haven. Peace was restored... for now. But hey, I’m glad this was over tbh

- Anna’s #jukebox Takeover

One peaceful afternoon of 28 July 2024, users of Doom Haven were living in harmony by vibing in the Mosh Pit VC. It all changed until Space’s cousin Anna took over Jackie Music in #jukebox, and started skipping songs except for K-Pop. Her power was so immense that even the Spaceman couldn’t stop her.

This was also the time where Anna was possessed by the Galactic Bully (see TIER 4 - Galactic Bully), taking the form of a yandere and reviving that dead channel once again.

That’s my girl! So proud of you! -Space

- Mod/assets theft

While Doom Haven is a hub for Doom modders, it’s not surprising that there are incidents of modders stealing assets from other modders. As mentioned above, Doommaker blatantly stole assets from Space, The Outdoomers, and from the creators of Simpsons Doom. So if you’re planning to include someone’s assets into your mods, please ask permission or credit them properly. It’s not that hard.

- DH Admin’s Meltdown of 2024

Some DH admin had a meltdown in Doom Haven. This was because of MaybeHawk mentioning the word “incest” in the chat (when in reality, he’s just referring to Project Incest). This was also because of other members of DH mentioning my sexuality. Hence, he lashed out at some members and left DH temporarily. Yeah, petty shit if you ask me.

- Anna Rejected Norb

Taking place in The Asylum Chat, this based capybara named Norb was in-love with this based chick named Anna. Finally having a woman around in Doom Haven, Norb decided to make her move. However, due to age differences, she was rejected, rendering her broken-hearted for weeks. RIP trooper. You’ll get one someday.

- OMX and MORTAL Incident

This incident started out when MORTAL accused OMX for stealing his assets for the HUD mod for Brutal Doom and Project Brutality. However, OMX was found innocent after providing some proof and was welcomed back from Doom Haven. In turn, MORTAL severed ties with Doom Haven indefinitely.

But here’s the plot twist: OMX was trolling all along. He only wanted to have a laugh by accusing MORTAL of stealing so that he could get banned in the process.

- “Negative Nancy”

There used to be a member of Doom Haven that we’ll only refer to as Nancy. So, the story is... Nancy used to be a decent member of DH, discussing Doom and other stuff in her country, the UK. However, Nancy also had the tendency to whine and bitch over a small thing. It became so unbearable when she started shitting on other users for liking something that she abhors.

This was also the same individual who cried over the fact that she had no friends, however she loooooooooooooooooooooooved to shit on people because their preferences don’t align to hers. And so, we decided to blackball her annoying ass and she will NO LONGER be eligible for an unban.

Kids, it’s okay to rant and vent out. However, if you do this frequently to the point you’re disrupting peace or accusing someone, you have two choices: log off Discord or leave Doom Haven and never return. Simple.

- Drunk Basil Moment

At around late December of 2022, Basil was super duper drunk that she started acting soooo random in VC and started saying some random shit in DH's announcements section lmao

- DH's Deathmatch Section

In order to gain more members in Doom Haven, the admins tried to set up a deathmatch section to cater to Zandronum and Skulltag players. There were also plans to create DH's own multiplayer server via Doomseeker. However, it later turns out that most members do not play deathmatch and the section was purged.

- Join-and-Leave Syndrome

Join-and-Leave Syndrome is the term used to refer to newcomers joining DH and leaving 2 seconds later, which irked the admins and Alice herself. Also, there was a member who simply joined DH just to showcase their half-assed sprite, just to leave 10 seconds later. They were blackballed for doing so.

This is why we took the liberty to initiate a verification system where new members should introduce themselves before joining the server. To get rid of morons joining and leaving 5 seconds later.

- Doom Haven Forums

In its humble origins, Doom haven started out as an online Doom-related forum created by Alice (formerly known as Deathclaw886).

- Bitchfish Incident (NSFW)

There was a well-loved user called "I Eat Fishes" (No joke btw) whose personality derives from their love to eat fish and nothing but fish. During her drunken moments, Alice explicitly called the user a "bitch" and started hurling insults towards them, which resulted in "I Eat Fishes" going into an indefinite hiatus. RIP fish eater. I hope he's in virtual heaven eating fish.

- Freddy/Bruipandar

Freddy (also known as Bruipandar and Baldr) was a former owner of Smiling Face Media who also was a former admin in DH. He was the genius behind Chainsaw Genocide (see TIER 4 - Chainsaw Genocide) and was a notorious Chibi simp (see TIER 4 - Freddy x Chibi). Once a well-revered member, his online presence has come to an end when he was outed for allegedly “encouraging suicide” to one of the members for snitching and defaming Smiling Face in the server (see TIER 5 - Freddy vs. Kinotsu Incident). He was also notorious for his edgy humour and throwing non-stop insults to members who violated the house rules.

- Name Change Incidents

A well-known admin from Doom Haven (name redacted to protect his privacy and his balls) has a habit of changing someone’s server name as a form of trolling. This made a lot of members angry (including me of course).

- The Thanos Snap of DH

Due to numerous members being inactive in Doom Haven, a Doom Haven admin wore his DH Gauntlet and “snapped” all inactive members to oblivion, resulting in a significant loss of members on Doom Haven. Long story short, he purged all of the inactive members in the server. This decision was disliked by Alice because of his failure to consult her before implementing the pruning, which resulted in DH's member count declining significantly.

The entry name is a reference to an important event in MCU where Thanos snapped with his Infinity Gauntlet, killing half of the population of the universe.

TIER 4: Knee-Deep in Doom Haven

- Needposting

Another well-known member of DH goes by the name Need for Doom. This fascinating individual is responsible for sending several messages that we'd like to call "Needposts". Needposting is a series of chat messages where Need would post his undying love for zombies, femboys (most especially Astolfo), Basil/Deathclaw/Alice (formerly), Stinky (his pet cat), Doomguy (duh, it's in his name), Chibi, cubes, goth subculture, BMW M3 GTR, Chell, Adrian Shephard, Aran Ryan, Nick, Witch, Headcrabs, clussy, Luigi, Waluigi, Princess Peach, Rosalina, The Postal Dude, Tara the Android/I Feel Fantastic Girl, Trevor Philips, Tony Montana, Blåhaj, SNES, and Call of Duty. He also has the habit of roleplaying on the server, most notably him pretending to be a US Marine when talking to Alice back in 2023.

- Freddy x Chibi (NSFW)

A former DH admin named Freddy (also known as Bruipandar) was infamous for simping for Chibi unironically. In a defunct #anime section of DH, he composed a heartwarming poem professing his love for Chibi by wanting to... make love to her.

(NSFW Warning: READ AT YOUR OWN RISK!)

Such a tearjerker moment right there. 10/10 would bleach my eyes again. Prick.

- “Project Incest”

Initiated by MaybeHawk, “Project Incest” is a CLI tool where “you can type INCEST in 5 different programming languages”. As of now, it is under development and will be released under a new name due to some members complaining over it.

- Winter the “Goth Girl”

Winter was a member of Doom Haven where she portrayed herself as a Scottish farmer who loves to dress up as a goth girl. But the issue is that she's not Scottish, nor a goth girl. Rather, she was an account made by some dumbass to catfish Space and was also the reason why he was blackballed on DH.

- Chainsaw Genocide

Chainsaw Genocide is an upcoming hack-and-slash FPS game developed by Nintoku Games and published by Smiling Face Media (formerly Smiling Face Productions) and was once produced in collaboration with Doom Haven. Created by Freddy/Bruipandar, it follows the story of Amatsu Shi committing a mass genocide throughout the entire universe to avenge his brother's brutal death.

However, due to the Freddy x Kinotsu Incident (see TIER 5 - Freddy x Kinotsu Incident) among other dramas, several members backed out from the production and developers who jumped into the drama train were laid off and blacklisted from the SF Dev Team.

- Andy and Leyley (NSFW)

The Coffin of Andy and Leyley is a psychological horror survival game where you play as the twins Andrew and Ashley Graves as they go on “misadventures” codependently. The main reason why this is included on the Iceberg is because Ashley (popularly known as Leyley) happens to be Alice’s Galactic Bully persona. And it ain’t a wholesome one. If you happen to stumble upon Alice in her Galactic Bully mode, RUN FOR YOUR DEAR LIFE!

- Sad Admins Hours

Also known as the Moods of Doom Haven, it’s about the moment where the two owners of Doom Haven were feeling sappy as hell due to personal reasons and... romantic reasons.

Alice’s Mood = Existential and Familial Crisis

Space’s Mood = Some things reminding him of... that girl

- “Waltuh White Roleplay”

What can I say? It’s basically MaybeHawk and Icy roleplaying in UAC Breakroom as Walter White and Jesse Pinkman respectively. That’s it. Nothing special.

- The Unlikeable Roozer

Roozer (or Roozy for short) was a prominent admin of Doom Haven and Alice’s best friend. One time, Alice came out as a non-binary (and later transgender) to Roozer, which the latter didn’t take lightly. This failed abortion is known for his sheltered views towards the LGBT+ community despite his affinity for futanari anime girls. So, what this toaster-loving inbred did was he publicly leaked his DMs with Basil out of spite and tried to justify his beliefs in his personal Discord server (with the help of Sarven unsurprisingly).

As a result, a lot of Roozy's friends PERMANENTLY cut ties with him and have since then been blackballed PERMANENTLY in DH. Oh, and also he's still talking to his toaster girl... yeah that one too. By the way, this soyboy even tried to sneak into Doom Haven using his other alt (not as Sarven because "she" was banned there as well), only to be busted by Basil. What a tool.

- DH Admins matching pfps

Just a wholesome moment where the admins of Doom Haven matched profile pictures with Alice (who was using a Basil pfp at that time). Finally, a sight for sore eyes. But this iceberg gets so much worse, so enjoy this entry while you can.

- "Timeout" Incidents

So for some reason, some members on Doom Haven get timed out by an admin for unknown reasons. It is presumed that the admin did that as a way of trolling or maybe as their passive way to enact revenge on someone who pissed them off.

- DH Scammers

Yes, you heard that right. There are members here who got banned due to them scamming other poor members of this server. If you receive any suspicious messages, report the user to us. Don't try to click/download links that look too sus. Stay safe, guys.

- The Notorious Plats

Another main participant in the Akita Incident, Plats was also notorious for his belligerent behaviour and attitude problems. He was fed up of Akita's petty outbursts that he once pestered Norb, a former DH co-owner, to ban Akita from the server... but to no avail. However during a VC, he acted so disrespectfully towards other members that the admins had to ultimately ban him due to his stubbornness. He has since then been pardoned by the higher-ups and had some redemption arc before leaving the server in early 2024.

- Doom Haven Community Projects

Doom Haven once had upcoming mods that were all put on hold due to personal and technical problems. Seriously, when will you guys work on this one?

- Music Skip Incident

A lesser-known incident where a member was skipping songs without the requester's permission. He was later called out for his behaviour but eventually learnt his lesson. Good boy.

- MF's Doom Guesser

Doom Map Guesser is a quiz game created by MF336 where the player needs to guess the Doom map/level from the screenshots provided. Players are also tasked to guess other details such as the number of secrets or the kill counts. According to MF, his project serves as a GeoGuesser of Doom. Also, download his game now. He will put more updates to it as soon as he gets more feedback.

- Get Nago'd

Get Nago'd was a meme that was being passed around on Doom Haven and Smiling Face to make fun of Freddy's cousin (named Nago) for doing something unforgivable. After Freddy's disappearance, this meme has been buried alongside him due to an incident.

For context, she sports a Bumblebee profile picture (because he's her favourite character).

- Hawk x Bellabot Meltdown

As a joke, several admins of DH shipped Hawk with a robotic cat called Bellabot (known famously as Kerfus in Poland). But our little Vine Cat was unamused. As a result, he had a meltdown in The Asylum Chat over Bellabot, throwing violent tirades about its presence and his thoughts of "killing" the robot. #catrobotlivesmatter #boothisman

- MORTAL vs. Kinotsu Incident

So apparently, a former admin and DH member known as Kinotsu was throwing tantrums at MORTAL over a disagreement in #uac-breakroom by threatening the latter with admin abuse, which unsurprisingly, angered some members in the server.

As it turns out, Kinotsu took MORTAL's comment out of context and mistook it as an insulting reply, when in reality, it wasn't.

- Hawk & Sarah

There was a couple named Hawk and Sarah. Both of them love computers and programming and shit. They used to be a thing together, until Sarah started abusing Hawk verbally. It became worse when Sarah decided to join DH just to spite Hawk further. As a result, we blackballed the bitch.

Hang in there, Hawk. You'll find someone who'll love you without treating you like shit.

- Space's Clones

Another dumb moment in the UAC Breakroom. So, there were dumbasses who made several alts posing as a female version of me and a gay version of me. So... these Space Clones were just there to roleplay with me, the gay Space was posing as an "alternate" version of me apparently, while the other one was supposed to be my waifu from some timeline that I forgot, and frankly, do not care. Jesus, can this fucking Iceberg get any worse?

- Morbius

Morbius is Sony's failed attempt to make another good Spider Man spinoff without sounding boring and generic as hell. As a result, a meme "It's Morbin' Time" was a cry to spite the film's piss poor quality. However, in DH's context, this means differently and is now frowned upon to even say this dead meme because it basically sounds like Norb's name. And please, for the love of all that's holy, don't say that meme to Norb to piss her off.

- E-begging

A newcomer from DH tried to beg for someone to buy them the game Doom on Steam. But wait, here's more: this moron's 25-fucking-years old. Imagine being a deadbeat manchild begging in Doom Haven to buy a cheap game for them? Ultimately, they're banned for their persistent e-begging. To hell with that pigeon.

- “Steve” Incident (NSFW)

To make the long story short, some dumb kid posted an NSFW video of Steve, which traumatised the members and staff of Doom Haven.

- Alice’s old WADs

Most recently, Alice managed to back up most of her old files on Doom Haven that most of them are no longer considered lost media anymore. As a result, most of her old WADs have been resurfaced and might be even updated in the future. Yes, including her own TERRY WAD.

- Roachposting

Roachposting is about members of Doom Haven posting cockroaches for fun because SOMEONE in that server hates roaches... with a passion.

- Fox & Space (WARNING: PERSONAL RANT INCOMING!)

This chick that we’re gonna refer to as “Fox” used to be a sweetheart I dated back in 2023. While she wasn’t active on Doom Haven, we chatted there from time to time. At first, everything was smooth-sailing until her personality changed into a manipulative and abusive twat. Sometime around early December, “Fox” decided to lash out at me for NO FUCKING REASON and unfriended me, which pissed me off to the highest level. With that said, I blacklisted her from numerous servers, including Doom Haven, in order to avoid any potential daytime drama involving her. And yes, those “I hate foxes” memes were made to make fun of her.

~~That motherfucker... I SHOULD HAVE NEVER TALKED TO YOU IN THE DMs AND STAYED AWAY!~~

- Marilyn Manson = Nazi (pictured)

Some smartass started as dumb conspiracy theory that Marilyn Manson is a Nazi just because he showed some “Nazi-related” symbols (such as the triskelion and the high voltage symbol) in his music videos. He also accused a member of “supporting a Nazi” after admitting that he enjoys listening to Manson. As a result, this tinfoil hippie was sent to the isolation chamber and did the unthinkable: THE GORE POSTS IN #THE-CHASM.

- Galactic Bully

Galactic Bully is the epitome of chaos and disorder, who only exists to spread tomfoolery in servers like Doom Haven. Coined by SpaceHunyango, anyone can be a Galactic Bully.

They can take all forms and appearances, regardless of gender, skin colour, or overall identity. Hell, even a cat can be a Galactic Bully. Their only goal is to eliminate all forms of authority, harmony, and boringness in the chat. They want to challenge and destroy the status quo. The Galactic Bully can also exist to eliminate anyone who they deem as a hindrance in reaching their goal. Unpredictability is the name of their game.

Long story short, Galactic Bully is a nickname for someone going “chaotic neutral” in Doom Haven.

- “DH Resident Femboy” Role

Hey guys, did you know DH once had a vanity role for femboys called “DH Resident Femboy”? Now that info will now stick in your head forever 😊

TIER 5: Gateway to DH Hell

WARNING: This part of the iceberg is NO LONGER SAFE FOR CHILDREN AND INNOCENT MINDS. I advise you not to read the entries from this point to save your sanity. I will not be responsible if any of you guys start to throw up or to die of cringe. This part is not for the faint of heart.

- Doom Haven & Smiling Face Partnership

Smiling Face was an aspiring game developers team that had a server to promote their first project: Chainsaw Genocide. Formerly owned by Freddy, it was later on owned by SpaceHunyango to keep in-charge of the server's day-to-day activities. The two servers once had a collaborative partnership where DH would agree to help out with the production of Chainsaw Genocide

While Smiling Face did manage to boost a lot of members and influence thanks to Doom Haven, numerous bullshit dramas ensued, which further worsened the relationship of the two servers. So if you guys think that these two will ever come back for one more collab, I don't think it'd happen again. Sorry to burst your bubble guys.

- Trollface Incident (2022 - 2023) (pictured)

So, there was this prick who harassed several members of Smiling Face and Doom Haven (including me) by combining the art of cyberbullying and trollface. As a result, that waster of sperm was blacklisted from both Doom Haven and Smiling Face server and was barred from contributing to Chainsaw Genocide. Basil also temporarily banned the use of trollface memes in both servers in order to move on from the trolling incident. That trollface ban was since then repealed since the drama died out.

- Freddy vs. Kinotsu Incident

The straw that broke the camel's back... This was the VERY incident where Smiling Face and Doom Haven finally parted ways. To make the long story short, Kinotsu was caught badmouthing Smiling Face in DH and in response, Freddy angrily confronted Kinotsu.

During this altercation, Kinotsu was threatening Freddy with suicide, in which the latter responded with "go die". This was interpreted as Freddy encouraging suicide and this caused many DH members to back out of the project entirely... and SpaceHunyango had to temporarily leave Doom Haven and other Collective-member servers because he'd had enough with all this googoo-gaga bullshit.

- Exposed for playing Crush Crush (NSFW)

So there's this one individual (name redacted for privacy reasons) who got exposed for playing this NSFW game called Crush Crush in UAC Breakroom. However, this certain individual cares less about them being exposed in the server, ending with the words, "I REGRET NOTHING!"

- Fartposting (NSFW)

Some dumbass posted a video of some poor chick getting body-slammed and farted on by some fat chick.

- Fighting over religion

This is why we enacted a rule not to talk too much about religion. It's about two members arguing about Jesus to the point where a member left the server. As a result, we decided to strictly enforce this rule in order to emphasise that while religious and irreligious members are welcome on DH, fighting over someone's religious beliefs or lack thereof is not a healthy discussion.

- "F-word" Incident

A DH member posted a GIF image that contains the no-no "f-word" (not "fuck"), which angered another member. When they were confronted by an admin, the irate member accused them of "trivialising" homophobia and left the server as a result. The one who posted a GIF got warned over that because he bypassed a slur that is blacklisted on DH.

- NSFW Discord Server Invites (NSFW)

Self-explanatory. Discord accounts who got hacked ended up posting several NSFW Server invites in Doom Haven and were all purged instantly.

- NNN Boobposting (NSFW)

No Nut November (NNN for short) is a meme challenge where guys are supposed to avoid the temptation of beating their meats in the duration of November. And so, some members of DH were posting boob pics and GIFs intentionally to make those who participate give in to the temptation of boobas lmao

- Bypassing Slurs

Even though it's made clear as to why we do not tolerate the use of ANY slurs in Doom Haven, there are still members who attempt to bypass slurs by posting a GIF or video with the slurs in it. On rare occasions, some of them even post the slur in a form of stylised fonts. If we catch you doing this, your post will be deleted IMMEDIATELY. Keep on doing this, get isolated, fool!

- Doom Insane Edition (D.I.E.)

Developed and published by the Collective, Doom Insane Edition was an April Fool's Doom mod where all sounds were replaced with voice acting by Nightmare, Roozer, Alice, and Norb. So, if you're planning on playing this mod, I'd suggest for you to lower the volume down and also to turn your lights off for a more immersive experience.

- The Great Nuke I

Occurred in early 2023, The Great Nuke was the lowest low of The Collective due to numerous dramas that happened in Doom Haven, with Smiling Face separating itself from the alliance. This was also the time when the admins of DH were struggling to pacify numerous members who were worsening the case by arguing with each other 24/7.

- "Artists" getting blackballed

It has come to our attention that a scam on Discord involves a so-called "artist" offering art commissions to their victims, only to run off with their money once the poor soul pays for their service. As a result, any "artists" attempting to solicit their "commissions" to DH members (through direct messaging) will be banned IMMEDIATELY. Any attempts in ban-evading will NOT be tolerated as well.

- DH Wedding Ceremony

A lesser-known moment in Doom Haven, two femboys (not gonna mention anyone so don't ask me for their names) had a mock wedding ceremony with Norb as the "priest". Can't say much about this event 'coz I was late to the party lmao

- Found Chainsaw Genocide OST

As a continuation from TIER 4 - Alice's old WADs, Alice also managed to salvage the original soundtracks for Chainsaw Genocide that she worked for back when she was collaborating with Smiling Face.

- Users with NSFW PFPs Blacklisted (NSFW)

Self-explanatory. Some banned members had nude photos as their profile picture. And no, don't ask for the pics. Shut the fuck up.

- A Member Snitched Out To Doomworld 🐭

Part of the Timmy Incident of 2024, one of the members of Doom Haven was booted out for staff disrespect and instigating drama. In response, they went to Doomworld and tried to call out the admins of Doom Haven there... which ultimately ended in a failure because Doomworld didn't take them seriously. This is what happens if you bring Internet drama to another platform. Don't. Be. A rat. 🐭🐭🐭

- Moonman/Deus (NSFL) (NSFW)

Moonman is a nickname of a user that was a major participant in the Timmy Incident of 2024. This living thing was infamous for his edgy humour and promoting a Doom wad referencing Columbine School Shooting. To put a cherry on top, he later admitted that he is a paedophile by harassing two underaged members. After admitting this to a DH admin, he was reported to Discord and his ban is permanent with NO CHANCE of re-entry. As of 04 November 2024, his current name is Deus.

- Windward's N-word Post

Some smooth-brained tryhard thought spamming a lot of "kill n-words" in the chat is funny and "based"... it's not.

- Basil's Smiling Face Takeover

To make the long story short, SpaceHunyango (the owner of SF) left Smiling Face temporarily due to creative differences over the direction of Chainsaw Genocide, leaving Basil in charge of the server. A couple of weeks later, Basil has had enough of a developer's persistence to change Chinsaw Genocide's storylines and decided to completely take over the server in a stricter manner, but later gave the leadership back to yours truly due to IRL problems.

- Cheesemaster69

A so-called arch-nemesis of an admin; a Doomworld resident crybaby who tried to confront him on Doom Haven over his "misconduct" back in Doomworld, but failed miserably.

- MaybeHawk's rumoured parents

There were rumours that briefly spread around Doom Haven that MaybeHawk is ALLEGEDLY the son of SpaceHunyango and some e-girl and that he was born out of wedlock. While this rumour is less likely true, there were people who bought this story. Yup. Those people exist.

- Icy's Character AI Collection (NSFW)

There was an alleged leak of Icy's online activity in Character.ai. It was said that his collection is composed of tsundere girls and anime mommies dominating the user. We at Doom Haven, we can not confirm nor deny this alleged leak, but judging on how Icy behaves in the chat, it is more likely that his... preferences towards women might be true.

- Isolation Chamber trolling moment

So this admin abused his powers by sending people to Isolation Chamber (now known as The Chasm) as a joke. This is why we will NO LONGER tolerate any forms of admin abuse on this server.

- HDoom Incident of 2024 (NSFW)

Some dumbshit decided to post HDoom on #doom-mods-showcase. As a result, they got isolated in #the-chasm.

- Raging over Doom: Dark Ages

So the same admin apparently doesn't like Doom: Dark Ages because "modern games mid, Klasik Dewm better!!111" So he decided to rant like a baby on #doom-talks, only to be confronted by a mod. As a result, he threw a bitch fit by purging all messages on that chat.

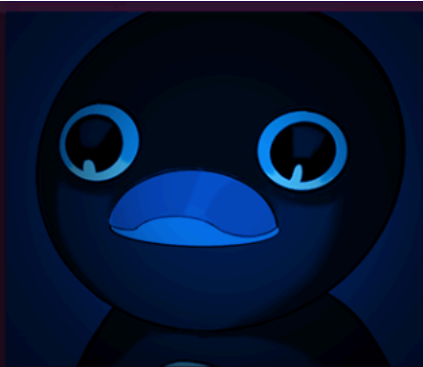

Guys, if you don't like Doom: Dark Ages, don't play the DAMN game! Go buy GTA 6 or go simp to your Genshin Impact waifu uwu meido girl instead. Simple.

- A User Was Outed For Being Below 13 Years Old

Discord Terms of Service (TOS) states that the user should be AT LEAST 13 years of age in order to use Discord. With that said, there was a member who bypassed this policy and joined DH until they straight out admitted that they're 12 years old. As a result, the admins had to revise DH's house rules to boot members that are below 13. So if you're a little Timmy and you're reading this, I wouldn't use Discord first if I were you.

WARNING: This part of the iceberg is NO LONGER SAFE FOR CHILDREN AND INNOCENT MINDS. I advise you not to read the entries from this point to save your sanity. I will not be responsible if any of you guys start to throw up or to die of cringe. This part is not for the faint of heart.

- "Eggs" Incident (NSFW)

A madman posted several graphic rule 34 images of Pokémon laying eggs in DH, which scared a lot of members. This incident inspired the "eggs" joke in The Asylum Chat.

- Maggot Cheese (NSFL)

A meme image of a cheese with maggots on it. Apparently, it's an Italian dish. Yummy. Don't show this to Norb though.

- Member Posting Bestiality and Gay Porn (NSFW)

Yeah, you read that right. Some "funny guy" posted two NSFW videos in Doom Haven, but were all zapped by yours truly. Also, the guy got banned immediately.

- Anna's "name change" incident

Yeah, so my cousin and a DH admin were roleplaying, and this moron is taking his roleplay waaay too seriously that he changed Anna's name without her permission, which angered me big time. As a result, I locked the UAC Breakroom and changed Anna's name back.

Seriously, STOP CHANGING SOMEONE'S NAME WITHOUT THEIR PERMISSION FFS!

- HDoom Stream (NSFW)

An unknown user was reported to be streaming HDoom in a voice channel (VC). Yup, someone did that.

- VC Porn Incident (NSFW)

It has come to our attention that another lunatic streamed porn in a VC, which some of the viewers are minors. As a result, we blackballed the user and we decided to quarantine the VC for the time being until it's safe for little Timothy to go there again.

- Poo Sausage (NSFW)

Also known as the Alaskan Pipeline. Too disgusting to summarise here, so I'll just put it this way:

Poop + Condoms + Gay Porn = Yummers

- Penguin Massacre (pictured)

And no, this has nothing to do with animal abuse so put the pitchforks down. Rather, it's about Basil losing a lot of her old files and works due to her inability to use Linux (where the mascot is a penguin named Tux). As a result, her computer broke down and was reinstalled to Windows instead.

- DTDR

Der Terror des Reiches (German for "The Terror of the Reich") is an upcoming total conversion created by Alice which is heavily inspired from the Wolfenstein franchise. Originally, this was her side project alongside composing for Chainsaw Genocide but was put on hold due to personal problems.

- Isolation.wad

Isolation.wad was an upcoming megawad to be produced and published by Doom Haven, in collaboration with the Collective. This was supposed to be Doom Haven's first horror-themed community project, but was scrapped due to personal and technical problems. UPDATE: Isolation.wad has been found and was salvaged by Alice herself.

- Vapreon'd (NSFW)

This DH admin kept on posting this bait-and-switch video involving an edit video of Hugh Neutron, only to be greeted by a rule 34 video of Vaporeon... getting some action. In loud audio. ~~You're now scarred for life!~~

- Nightmare vs. Space Incident

This fresh drama is as fresh as milk. So long story short, Nightmare ghosted Space because the latter called him a “whiteknight” for blindly defending Winter after a brutal breakup. So being the most mature gentleman on DH, Nightmare threw a bitch fit on DH staff chat, demanding an apology from Spacey Wacey. However, he got nothing and got exposed for posing as Winter and left the server. Oh, and also he lost a lot of friends as a result.

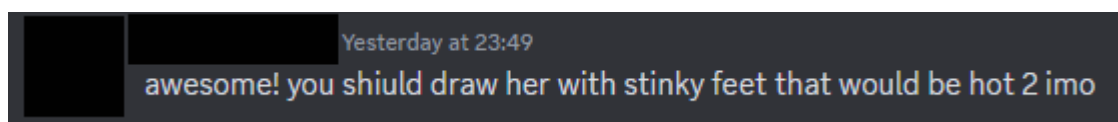

As it turns out, Space broke up with Winter on purpose because he knew that Winter was Nightmare all along. And no, he has no reason to apologise for this because he got catfished and this British imbecile chose to gaslight him in front of DH staff. So he got nothing! He lost! Good day, fuckface!

- Chibi’s “Stinky Feet” Comment (NSFW)

Chibi has become such a household name in Doom Haven that there are new members joining the server all because they want to see more of Chibi... even though Chibi has nothing to do with Doom whatsoever. Aside from Freddy, there’s this one guy who was going gaga over Chibi to the point where they suggested for Space to draw the catgirl “with stinky feet”. If you’ll excuse me, I have to bleach my brain out, be right back.

And yes, it was a real comment btw...

(NSFW Warning: READ AT YOUR OWN RISK!)

- A Member Attempted To Dox An Alleged Paedophile (NSFW)

A member called out an individual outside DH as an alleged paedophile and started to dox their private information in the chat, but was deleted because it violated DH’s house rules (“Avoid posting someone’s private information in a public chat”). Also, why don’t they try to inform the authorities about that individual or even try to report the user to Discord? I mean this is Doom Haven, not Chris Hansen's To Catch a Predator.

- Alice x Bunny Chatlog (NSFW)

In another episode of Alice's Galactic Bully adventures, Alice decided to chat Bunny's Character AI persona... and it didn't end well 'coz someone here decided to be a horndog out of nowhere that we had to purify Alice by bonking her head 20 times and spray her eyes with Holy Water to exorcise Galactic Bully out of her.

(NSFW Warning: READ AT YOUR OWN RISK!)

- Horse Incident (NSFL) (NSFW)

Part of the Great Nuke II, someone posted a bestiality photo in other member's DMs which caused shock and trauma. That's all I had to say about this... I don't want to go further for the sake of your sanity.

- Gore Posts in #the-chasm (NSFL)

Remember that virtue-signalling Ballchinian who started a rumour that Marilyn Manson is a Nazi (Refer to TIER 5 - Marilyn Manson = Nazi)? Well, he got isolated in The Chasm to be taken care of by the admins. However, instead of complying like a law-abiding citizen would, he started posting gore and screenshots of the Columbine Massacre to piss off the admins, including Basil. Hypocrisy at work right there folks.

- Hevn's Bunny Maze Theory

During a casual conversation in UAC Breakroom, Hevn pulled a MatPat and proposed a fan theory about Bunny Maze: it was a joint initiative by the FBI and CIA as a part of the Cold War.

Here's Hevn's Cold War Theory:

- NSFW Soundboard Spam (NSFW)

So, a group of dumbos woke up one day and chose violence. So during a wholesome VC in Doom Haven, these brainlets spammed a lot of moaning/porn sound effects, disrupting the voice call and we had to “isolate” the brainlets from the rest of the members. Furthermore, we had to “quarantine” the VC until it was safe to enter.

- DH Member using and defending AI art

Back in 2022, a Doom Haven member posted his AI art and started bitching and whining about artists charging him money to work on his commissions while his AI waifu would just generate AI art for him, free of charge. He also added that an artwork that an AI “created” is free of copyright whatsoever. Plus, he was also yapping about the fact that AI art is an effective tool to compete against human artists because AI art can do a myriad of styles that humans can't.

There's so much wrong with his reasoning. For one, you're lazy. You didn't "CREATE" the art. You just generated it from an app. Second, just because an AI generates an art for you, that doesn't mean that you "OWN" the copyright of the art. And third of all, you do realise that it is part of our mantra as an artist to form our own style? Because the art style defines the artist.

But nah, you just want the easy way out. This is why so-called "artists" like you are getting clowned on in real life and online. Keep coping, kid. Might as well simp to your Character AI waifu.

- Edgeworth Incident

So, a DH member posted a meme that contains the word "[generic slur]", which offended another member known as Edgeworth. As a result, the memes channel was nuked because of this petty drama that could've been solved if Edgeworth simply blocked this member. But nah, we should make a huge deal over words. This is why our skins are getting thinner and thinner everyday.

- VC Recording Incident

During a VC session, a user was caught recording the call without permission. As a result, the user was warned and placed under watch list in case they repeat the same offence. With that said, we are asking the members not to record the VC unless everybody is okay with it. Because doing that breaches other members' privacy.

- Unfinished Dating Simulator Game

Back in 2022, a DH member started working on a visual novel game called "Untitled Dating Simulator" which involves a DH admin dating other characters and has multiple endings, some of them containing a sex scene. However, due to Great Nuke I (See TIER 5 - Great Nuke I) and this individual's personal life getting in the way, the game was scrapped. Sadly, no screenshots, artwork, or gameplay ever surfaced.

TIER 7: The Doom Haven Abyss

WARNING: This part of the iceberg is NO LONGER SAFE FOR CHILDREN AND INNOCENT MINDS. I advise you not to read the entries from this point to save your sanity. I will not be responsible if any of you guys start to throw up or to die of cringe. This part is not for the faint of heart.

- Hawk's Wyoming Incident (NSFL)

Also known as the "Onion is a Lie", this incident occurred when Hawk clicked the links using his onion browser, which will forever change his perception of the Dark Web. He saw numerous visuals that he's not meant to see.

Seems like curiosity has killed Vine Cat.

- Blacklisted Wads in DH (NSFL) (NSFW)

There were mods and works that were deleted in Doom Haven either because they violate DH's house rules (such as HDoom, Grezzo, Moonman.wad, and the infamous Eric Harris Maps) or were created by the same folks who were blacklisted from the server (and surprisingly, a lot of them are in this iceberg too).

- "All slurs should be uncensored"

A member of Doom Haven complained over the fact that all slurs were filtered, to the point where he's accusing us of "catering to a woke audience". Due to their persistence, they were blackballed from the server.

As much as we promote free speech, that does not mean however that we are absolved in taking responsibility in what we say, which also includes saying slurs. Also, the main reason why they're filtered in DH is because of edgy kids using those words to harass someone or to start another set of drama.

If you guys want to be edgy and shit, please go back to 4Chan. You belong there. And no, we will NEVER uncensor slurs since we want everyone to join this server. It's not us being "WOKE". It's called being respectful, dipshit. And don't you dare bring up Twitter politics in DH.

And one more thing, swear words are unfiltered, so be thankful we didn't censor those too.

- "D.I.E." is canon to Doom?

Within the Doom community, there were rumours about all Doom mods and wads being part of the Doom continuity. Some sources attribute it to Bethesda, while others to John Romero. But no one knows who started the theory.

With that said, it can be theorised that Doom Insane Edition is also part of the main Doom multiverse, along with its sounds that can be considered as part of its own physical laws.

- DH was allegedly DDoS'ed

There was a time where Doom Haven was allegedly part of a Distributed Denial-of-Service Attack \(DDoS\) by Doomworld. It all began when some members couldn't access the Doomworld website and instead got a DNS error or a "BANNED" error message.

- DH's Chaotic Dark Age (NSFW)

Doom Haven's Chaotic Dark Age occurred during its earliest time in Discord where the users can say whatever they want, including every slurs known to mankind. This was also the time when posting boobs and light NSFW was A-OK until the newcomers were feeling uneasy towards the slurs being thrown, which would forever change Doom Haven's approach by enforcing their newly-established House Rules.

- DH's Lost Media

Thanks to the so-called “Penguin Massacre”, Basil’s numerous works including art, Doom wads, and music compositions were all lost in the dark void of the virtual world.

This entry also refers to numerous projects made by other members of DH but were not finished, such as the Untitled Dating Simulator.

- Forbidden Servers in DH

Yes. We have a list of Discord servers blacklisted from being promoted on DH due to the said servers associated with blacklisted members. So if you manage to see your server invites not deleted, consider yourself lucky.

- Gore pics DMs (NSFL)

A Doom Haven member posted a graphic gore photo to an admin, which caused them to be sent to the Isolation Chamber immediately. The perpetrator was then released 3 months later.

- Defunct Sections in DH

Doom Haven has been revamping itself to cater to the Doomers from all corners of the world. With that said, a lot of sections were deleted or modified to suit the taste of DH members. One notable section that was removed was the “Anime Section” where anime-lovers would go there and chat about anything anime... and that was also the section where the Freddy x Chibi Incident happened. Another notable removed section was the multiplayer/deathmatch section due to only a few members going there to play multiplayer Doom with others.

- Unpersoned DH Admin

We used to have an admin in DH (name redacted to avoid drama) who made a handful of contributions to the server and was an active member.

However, this all changed when they started exhibiting shitty attitude towards other members to the point where they tried to throw SpaceHuyango under the bus just because their “trolling” got backfired miserably. As a result, all of their posts will be purged and will no longer be mentioned by name because they DO NOT deserve any attention whatsoever.

- The Great Nuke II (NSFL) (NSFW)

The Great Nuke II was a “civil war” moment that happened among DH admins by sending each other... “photos” that I refuse to go into full detail. And yes, the Horse Incident was the nuke bomb that ended “all wars”.

- Doxxing Incidents

There are instances where wanna-be “hackermen” are attempting to be cool kids by posting private information (most notably their IP address) in the chat. This practice is called “doxxing”, and is a blatant violation of DH’s House Rules and Discord’s Community Guidelines. With that said, users who are guilty of doing this on the server are immediately blackballed with no chance of re-entering.

- Amber Heard’s Whiteknights

Yup. You read it correctly. There were members of DH who defended Amber Heard for simply being a “domestic abuse survivor who had a story to tell” over the actress’s fallout with Johnny Depp. They also believe that Johnny Depp is also the one to blame.

Good news, those whiteknights were Timmies. Even better news, they were the same Timmies who got blackballed during the Timmy Incident.

- Roozy is a closeted queer?

I mean it’s self-explanatory. He has knowledge of gay porn and the actors, he’s into futanaris/futas, and that he wastes most of his life shitting on the LGBT+ community.

But hey, it’s just a theory, A GAAAAAAAAAAAAAY THEORY!

- Space x Alice Roleplay (NSFW)

There was another alleged rumour going in DH about SpaceHunyango and Alice doing some erotic gay roleplay. Allegedly, Space and Alice were roleplaying about the two making out and describing the scene like it’s straight out of some 14-year-old’s Harry Potter fanfic. But due to lack of evidence, we can not confirm its existence and still remains a mystery up to this day.

And please don’t ask me about that... whoever started that rumour is full of shit. -Space

- Kokusai High School Science Club

Kokusai High School Science Club is an unfinished game/visual novel created by Alice during her teenage years. Not much is known about its content but it is presumed to be a psychological horror game about a high school student, or possibly an action horror game. It is part of DH's lost media and no screenshots, artwork, or even videos of it exist.

- Alice's Yandere Phase (pictured) (NSFL)

Well, Alice had a teen angst phase which she displayed back in Doomworld, exhibiting her so-called “yandere” personality. However, since this subject matter is also too personal, I'm not going into full details about this entry out of respect. Instead, you're free to DM Alice herself about this.

- Talks about Suicide and Self-Harm (NSFL)

Because we're all humans, we tend to break down and cry if life gives you nothing but a bag of coal. So it's not common for members to rant about their shitty days in DH. However, some would go the extra mile and express their thoughts about offing themselves to end their suffering or even resort to self-cutting. We, at Doom haven, DO NOT condone suicide or self-harm. While it's okay to rant every once in a while, we DO NOT recommend you to choose suicide as an easy way out. If you're feeling suicidal, please talk to a therapist, talk to your loved ones (or your friends), or please call these suicide hotline numbers.

And lastly, we WILL NOT tolerate using suicide/self-harm as an excuse to gaslight someone in Doom Haven. We will isolate you if you do that to others. No ifs or buts.
